

NOMINATION FOR MARTHA BROWNING DICUS AWARD - to be presented October 2016

The SCWLA Foundation is now accepting nominations for the Martha Browning Dicus Award for Public Interest Law, presented to honor South Carolina attorneys who best exemplify "service with a joyful heart" using law and/or advocacy in public service or the public interest. Selection criteria include the nominee's distinguished and noteworthy service using law and/or advocacy in public service or public interest to advance justice and social change in the lives of vulnerable individuals and/or underserved communities; achievement of professional excellence in the legal services, public interest, public defender, non-profit, government or pro bono fields; and involvement in activities that encourage others to participate in public service.

NAME OF NOMINEE:

ADDRESS:

TELEPHONE NUMBER: _____ (Office)

_____ (Mobile)

EMAIL:

PLEASE ALSO ANSWER THE THREE FOLLOWING QUESTIONS:

- I. Describe how the Nominee has used law and/or advocacy in public service or the public interest to advance justice and social change in the lives of vulnerable individuals and/or underserved communities.
- II. Describe how the Nominee has influenced other lawyers and particularly women lawyers to pursue public service and/or public interest careers.
- III. Describe the Nominee's career and service to the Bar and Community.

Nomination submitted by: Print name:

Address: _____

Phone & Email _____

Nominations should be directed to the SCWLA Foundation c/o SCWLA, PO Box 11910, Columbia, SC 29211. For confirmation that your nomination has been received – you can email ezeck@willoughbyhoefer.com or call 803.447.4719.

ALL Nomination materials must be received no later than August 5, 2016.